A few paintings by my maternal great-uncle

Marius-Joseph MOSSAN

(1885-1965)

Almost self-taught, my great-uncle never exhibited his paintings. Just as Alfred Wallis, he painted to "keep himself company". He liked especially flowers and landscapes.

Rosa eglanteria (Eglantines)

Serene Summer

Peaches and roses

On the hillside (Les côteaux)

Farm by the bridge

Jean-Michel René SOUCHE

(pseudonym : Jan Leontsky)

Official Website

souche-paintings.com